

Table 1: Current Pending Legislation

State	Bill Number	Bill Description	Sponsoring Legislator	Bill Status
California	Pending	A bill to mandate insurers to follow standardized guidelines when assessing and evaluating for eating disorder treatment	Assemblywoman Fiona Ma	Currently being drafted. Anticipated introduction Feb 2010.
Florida	H.R. 7/ S.B. 182	Mental Health Parity (to include eating disorders)	Representative Ed Homan, Senator Victor Crist
Missouri	HB 1733/SB 744	Will require that insurance companies provide access to and complete treatment for eating disorders, similar to other insured medical conditions. Will also provide awareness and education programs for health care professionals and the general public.	Rachel Storch (D) and Rick Stream (R) in the House and David Pearce (R) in the Senate	Bills in House and Senate will be filed 12/01/09. Lobby Day scheduled for 2/2/10.
New York	A08249/ S 5011	Will mandate medical professionals to receive training on eating disorder signs and symptoms	Assemblyman Peter Rivera	In Higher Education Committee
Pennsylvania	SB 1138	Will require insurers to cover residential facilities treating eating disorders.	Senator Daylin Leach	Introduced in Nov 2009
Rhode Island	S. 357	Mental Health Parity for Eating Disorders	Senator Susan Sosnowski

Updates as of January 2010